

Talks, Workshops and Demonstrations

with members and volunteers from the Waunifor Community

You are warmly invited to a fascinating series of talks and workshops, running alongside the art exhibition. They cover a range of subjects, arising from individuals' researches and passions. And there may well be other spontaneous extras announced closer to the time, so keep a lookout on the Waunifor websites and Facebook, where there are also more details about the workshops below! They will take place in the art room, up the stairs on the first floor of Mansion House.

Saturday 24 August, 2-4pm cost £5

Reclaiming the Feminine Mystery of Creation with Eva Skalla and Joan Franclova

A fascinating and pictorial journey through the many goddesses of the world – exploring what they tell us about the divine feminine, both throughout human history and also its relevance in our world today.

Sunday 25 August, 2-4pm cost £10 including art materials

Ways of Looking with Viv Mullett

Drawing usually involves observation of some kind. Are there ways of observing without using the eyes? This workshop is an exploratory exercise in drawing objects by using our other senses to do the 'seeing'. No art skills required!!

Monday 26 August, 2-4pm cost £10 including art materials

Celebrating Nature through Art with Elaine Graham

For those who have a deep love of nature and seek to express these feelings through visual art, this workshop explores ways and means to capture mother earth's continually unfolding theatre.

Tuesday 27 August, 2-4pm cost £5

The Appearance of Intelligence from the Future through the Arts with James Smith

Exploring the story of how intelligence appears from the future through the arts. What do these understandings propose for each life that searches for new artistic expression now? Is there new intelligence appearing in our time?

Wednesday 28 August, 2-4pm cost £5

Know Thyself – Contemplations with Rosamond Rolleston and Jackie Henshall

Guided contemplations to open further this unique, mysterious and revelatory journey, so personal to each of us, along with conversation and companionship.

Thursday 29 August, 2-4pm cost £10 including art materials, booking essential on 01559 395437

Around the World – Painting Workshop with Jackie Henshall and Sally Hayes

From our respect for the many different cultures and traditions, we invite you to come and paint with us to a variety of music from around the world.

Friday 30 August, 2-4pm cost £10 including art materials

Visualising the Unseen with Eva Skalla and Joan Franclova

A practical workshop which introduces the unseen worlds around us. This then leads to drawing or painting these worlds, experimenting with expressing your own experience.

Saturday 31 August 7pm cost £3

Earth as a Sacred Space with Café Gallery artists in the Rendezvous Café

An evening with the café gallery artists speaking about their current exhibition, and the different inspirations and starting places each found working inside this marvellous title, Earth as a Sacred Space.

Waunifor Centre

Waunifor is an historic creativity, cultural and conference centre set in four acres of tranquil gardens in south-west Wales, near Llandysul. The annual End of Summer Exhibition is held in the spacious and airy Cedar Hall. There are six cottages on-site, available for conference accommodation and self-catering holidays.

Rendezvous Café

The warm and friendly café will be open for lunch and refreshments each day from 11am to 4pm. During the exhibition, visitors can enjoy delicious cakes, tea and coffee, juices, a light lunch and other refreshments, and sit outside on the deck overlooking the stream. A community shop in the café offers specialist snacks and supplies plus a small range of local crafts.

Something for everyone

Whether you are keen on viewing the artists' work (all work is for sale), prefer spending a pleasant few hours wandering in the grounds or just want to sit by the stream and relax with a drink and a newspaper, Waunifor is a place of sanctuary and inspiration for the whole family. There is a lovely small lake with a duck island, and a dedicated children's area with a sandpit and swings. However, you must supervise your children at all times.

Experiences - craft & pottery at Waunifor

Whilst you are on holiday, you can take advantage of the custom-built Waunifor craft and pottery studio, in its peaceful and relaxing setting. If you have always wanted to try throwing a pot on the wheel, painting with watercolour, cyanotype photography, silk painting, honing your drawing skills, painting on glass, then a Waunifor Experience is for you. We cater for individuals, families, and groups, and you can book as many two-hour sessions as you wish.

Contact Waunifor 01559 395437 info@waunifor.com www.waunifor.com

Parking On-site parking is free. Full wheelchair access to the exhibition and café.

There is disabled parking at the end of the drive, outside Cedar Hall.
